Job Title: Associate Therapist

Reports to: Director & Clinical Supervisor

The newly-established Tikkun Center for Psychotherapy, an expansion of the successful practice of Charlotte Rosenberg, PsyD (nee Jevons) in Midtown, is seeking two associate therapists as supervisees in an in-person psychodynamic environment. Dr. Rosenberg, who works psychoanalytically, is in postgraduate training to become a certified psychoanalyst.

Mission

The mission of the Tikkun Center for Psychotherapy is to promote healing and growth through compassionate and evidence-based psychotherapy services. The word "Tikkun" is an ancient Hebrew word which means "repair" or "healing," and it represents our commitment to helping individuals, couples, and families find wholeness and well-being in their lives. We strive to create a safe and inclusive space where patients can explore their inner worlds, process their experiences, and develop meaningful connections with others. We believe in the power of self-reflection, self-compassion, and mindfulness to facilitate personal growth and positive change.

How you'll be rewarded:

- $80 per hour (50-50 split) for clinical hours; $25/hour for admin work (such as orientation, trainings, special projects, etc.)
- Medical, dental, and vision benefits once you attain full-time status (average 25 clinical hours per week or more)
- Weekly one-on-one and triad supervision by Dr. Charlotte Rosenberg
- A beautifully apportioned consultation room with a delightful quantity of natural light in a historic Victorian two blocks from the Capitol and one block from Old Soul
- Flexible in-person work schedule
- Choose the population you want to work with
- Develop your own patient caseload and receive the support you need to develop a private practice upon full licensure

Our ideal candidate:

- Recently finished graduate studies and looking to obtain their hours
- Required: California AMFT/APCC license (now or within the next three months)
- Someone eager to market and brand themselves to develop their caseload
- Currently engaged in their own psychotherapy
- Have an interest in develop their skills as a psychodynamic therapist
- Seeking to work with individuals, couples, and families
